

COURTROOM DECORUM FOR THE UNITED STATES COURT OF FEDERAL CLAIMS

- The dignity of the court is to be respected and maintained at all times.
- Attire for counsel and spectators should be restrained and appropriate to the dignity of The United States Court of Federal Claims.
- Court security officers and court staff are authorized to open and inspect any item carried into a courtroom.
- Everyone in the courtroom, unless physically challenged, must rise when the judges enter and remain standing until the presiding judge invites everyone to be seated. Similarly, when court adjourns, everyone stands in place until the judge exits the courtroom.
- Counsel may address the court when invited to do so.
- Coat racks in the hallways outside the courtrooms are to be utilized.
- Only material related to the court's business can be read in the courtroom while court is in session.
- When court is in session, no one should be heard except for counsel making argument or a judge.
- The following items are prohibited in the courtroom and adjacent lobby area:
  - Mobile telephone or audible pager,
  - Recording device,
  - Camera,
  - Food and drink (except for the water provided at the counsel table),
  - Computer (except for those to be used by counsel during argument).
- Inappropriate facial gestures or exaggerated gesticulating is forbidden.
- Repeated entrances and departures are to be avoided.
- Doorways and passageways should be kept clear at all times.
- No person under the influence of drugs or intoxicating beverages will be allowed into the courtroom or adjacent areas.

Effective November 25, 2002

Edward J. Damich
Chief Judge
