

The Court of Federal Claims Bar Association Brown Bag Series

and

The Federal Circuit Bar Association Horizons Seminar Series

Proudly Present

A Two-Part Series on Appellate and Trial Advocacy

October 12, 2004 at 12 p.m. - "The Written Word"

Experienced Private and Public Practitioners, as well as Members of the Bar, Provide Key Insights Sharpening Your Skills in Written Trial and Appellate Advocacy

Panelists include:

The Honorable Alan D. Lourie
Circuit Judge
United States Court of Appeals For The Federal Circuit

The Honorable Emily C. Hewitt
Judge
United States Court of Federal Claims

Edward Good
Finnegan, Henderson, Farrabow, Garrett, and Dunner

Jeanne Davidson, Deputy Director
Commercial Litigation Branch, Civil Division
United States Department of Justice

The program will take place on the lower level of the Tayloe House, U.S. Court of Federal Claims, 717 Madison Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. Lunch can be purchased at the Tayloe House cafeteria or attendees can feel free to bring their own brown bag lunch. Please RSVP to Deborah Bynum at deborah.bynum@usdoj.gov or (202) 616-0468.