DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On July 10, 2012, petitioner filed an Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, requesting $16,970.00 in attorneys' fees and $2,405.81 in attorneys' costs. On July 24, 2012, respondent's counsel communicated to the undersigned's law clerk that respondent does not object to the fee application and does not oppose an award in the amount requested.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner's counsel states that petitioner did not incur any costs to pursue his petition.

The undersigned finds this amount requested to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $19,375.81, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and Hepworth, Janis & Kluksdal, Chtd., in the amount of $19,375.81.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
