Attorneys' Fees & Costs Decision
Based on Stipulation of Fact

MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On December 14, 2012, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioners state that they did not incur any costs to pursue the petition.

On November 29, 2012, petitioners filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs totaling $19,286.21. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items. Based on these objections, petitioners now amend their request for attorneys' fees and costs and request $17,413.71. Respondent does not object to the reduced amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $17,413.71, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioners and Lorraine J. Mansfield, Esq. in the amount of $17,413.71.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
