Attorneys seeking admission to the United States Court of Federal Claims must first review the admission information available on the court's website at www.uscfc.uscourts.gov. If you were previously admitted to this court and have a CM/ECF login and password, you do not need to reapply for admission. See linking instructions at www.uscfc.uscourts.gov. If you are already admitted and in good standing with the United States Court of Federal Claims but do not have an e-filing account, select E-Filing Registration Only. For admission in open court during a monthly attorney admissions proceeding pursuant to RCFC 83.1(b)(2)(A)(i), complete the Form for Admission via Motion in Open Court. Supporting documentation: certificate of good standing. For admission by verified application pursuant to RCFC 83.1(b)(2)(A)(iii), complete Form for Admission by Verified Application. Supporting documentation: certificate of good standing and 2 letters or signed statements.

Payment Information

NOTE: Not all courts accept ACH payments. If the court to which you are making a payment does not accept ACH, then ACH payments will not be available as an option during payment. In addition, the PACER Service Center does not accept ACH payments for PACER (case search) fees.

This section is optional. If you do not enter payment information here, you may do so later by selecting the Make One-Time PACER Fee Payment option under the Payments tab.

Select your method of payment from the Add Credit Card and Add ACH Payment options below. You may store up to three payment methods.

To designate a card as the default for e-filing or admissions fees, click the Set default link in the box(es) below. To remove the card as a default, click the Turn off link.

Select Next.

Step 11. Acknowledge the policies and procedures for attorney admissions and attorney e-filers by selecting all applicable check boxes. Select Submit.

You will receive electronic notification to complete payment of the admission fee, which will complete the admission process. If registering for e-filing only, you will be notified by e-mail of your filing status within one business day.

Step 12. If you are registering for e-filing only, you have completed the registration process; if you are applying for attorney admissions, you have completed the first step of the application and registration process. Select Done.

3. Submit the Application Fee

If your application materials are in order, the Clerk's Office will notify you by e-mail to pay the application fee online.

- a. There will be a payment link provided in the e-mail message. When you click the link, you will be prompted to log in to PACER. Once you log in, your submitted information and application should appear on the screen. If you need to provide additional materials, such as a Certificate of Good Standing, select Browse to upload an additional document. If needed, multiple documents can be uploaded. When finished, select Pay Fee and Submit Application.
- b. Re-enter your PACER credentials to proceed to the payment screen. Select your form of payment and complete any remaining prompts to complete the transaction.

The Clerk's Office will notify you electronically once your bar admission and e-filing access have been completed. Please allow up to two business days for processing.

The Clerk's Office will mail you a Certificate of Admission within a week of completion.

4. Check the Status of Your Bar Application

After submitting your request for admission to the bar and for e-filing access, you can check the status of your request via PACER.

Step 1. Go to www.pacer.gov.

Step 2. Select Manage My Account at the top of the screen.

Step 3. Log in using your PACER credentials (if not already logged in).

Step 4. Under the Maintenance tab, select Check E-File Status to review the status of your registration.

Step 5. Select Check next to U.S. Court of Federal Claims.
