No. 3-2476V

Filed: October 6, 2011

JOSEPH C. MCALLISTER and SUZANNE
R. MCALLISTER, as parents and natural guardians of Alec Joseph McAllister,
a minor,

Petitioners,

v.

SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES,

Respondent.

ORDER GRANTING RECONSIDERATION¹

On October 4, 2011, the undersigned dismissed this case for failure to prosecute. On October 5, 2011, petitioners filed a motion for reconsideration of that decision, along with separate motions for a dismissal decision and for a decision awarding attorneys' fees and costs.

Reconsideration of decisions issued pursuant to the Vaccine Act² are governed by Vaccine Rule 10(e). "The special master has the discretion to grant or deny the motion [for reconsideration], in the interest of justice." Vaccine Rule 10(e)(3). This rule grants a special master significant discretion to determine in a particular case what result is “in the interest of justice.” See Krakow v. Sec’y, HHS, No. 03-632V, 2010 WL 5572074, at *5 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Nov. 12, 2010); see also Yuba Natural Res., Inc. v. United States, 904 F.2d 1577, 1583 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (“The decision whether to grant reconsideration lies largely within the discretion of the [trial] court.”).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2006).

This petition was dismissed after petitioners were unresponsive to court orders. As petitioners were reminded in the August 22, 2011 order, failure to follow court orders, as well as failure to file medical records or an expert medical opinion, shall result in dismissal of petitioners’ claim. Tsekouras v. Sec’y, HHS, 26 Cl. Ct. 439 (1992), aff’d per curiam, 991 F.2d 810 (Fed. Cir. 1993); Sapharas v. Sec’y, HHS, 35 Fed. Cl. 503 (1996); Vaccine Rule 21(b). On June 13, 2011, petitioners were ordered to inform the court whether they intended to proceed with this case. Petitioners failed to respond. On August 22, 2011, petitioners were again ordered to inform the court whether petitioners intended to proceed with this case or otherwise show cause within thirty days why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. Petitioners failed to respond to that order as well.

Petitioners’ motion for reconsideration explains that on or before October 5, 2011, petitioners contacted their counsel and indicated a desire to dismiss this case. Petitioners submitted to respondent a draft motion for a dismissal decision that included a request for attorneys’ fees and costs. The filed motions for dismissal and for fees indicate that counsel for respondent does not object to dismissal, but does object to an award of fees. The motion for reconsideration suggests that petitioners’ counsel intended to file petitioners’ motions for dismissal and for fees prior to the deadline for responding to the show cause order.

This new development supports a ruling that it is in the interest of justice to reconsider the dismissal to allow the parties to resolve the case pursuant to their mutual understanding, reflected in petitioners’ unopposed motion for a dismissal decision. Petitioners’ motion for reconsideration is GRANTED, and the clerk of court is instructed to withdraw the October 4, 2011 decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
