DECISION¹

Golkiewicz, Special Master.

The parties filed a Joint Stipulation of Facts Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs (Stipulation) on July 7, 2011. The parties' Stipulation indicated Petitioners submitted a draft Application for Attorney's Fees and Costs (Draft Application) to respondent on or about July 5, 2011. The parties' Stipulation further indicated that in compliance with General Order #9, petitioners' counsel represents that he will reimburse Petitioners for any personal litigation costs compensable under the Vaccine Act from the award of attorneys' fees and costs in this case. Respondent's counsel indicated she had no objection to petitioners' request for attorneys' fees and other litigation costs.

¹ Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I intend to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, § 205, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (codified as amended at 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2006)). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to delete medical or other information, that satisfies the criteria in § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B). Further, consistent with the rule requirement, a motion for redaction must include a proposed redacted decision. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within the requirements of that provision, I will delete such material from public access.

After reviewing the request, the court awards $5,609.84 in attorneys' fees and other litigation costs, which shall be made payable jointly to petitioners and petitioners' counsel, George Granville Tankard, III. The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.

²Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
