DECISION¹

GOLKIEWICZ, Chief Special Master.

On November 18, 2009, the parties to the above-captioned case filed a Stipulation, attached hereto, memorializing their agreement as to the appropriate amount of compensation in this case. Petitioner alleges he suffered vaccine-related injuries, an encephalopathy and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, related to vaccinations he received in February 2002.² Respondent denies petitioner's injuries were caused-in-fact by the vaccines he received. Nonetheless, the parties agreed informally to resolve this matter.

The court hereby ADOPTS the parties' said Stipulation and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein. Specifically, petitioner is awarded a lump sum of $25,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. See Stipulation, para. 9.

¹The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims's website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical files or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise, the entire decision will be available to the public. Id.

²Petitioner received polio, tetanus and Hepatitis A vaccinations on February 5, 2002; he received influenza and Hepatitis B vaccinations on February 18, 2002.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Gary J. Golkiewicz
Chief Special Master

³Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
