DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On August 24, 2011, the parties filed a stipulation in which they agreed to settle the attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

The court finds the amount to be reasonable and hereby adopts the parties' stipulation and awards compensation in the amount set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards $18,000.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees, and $2,924.10, representing reimbursement for attorneys' costs. The award shall be in the form of one check made jointly payable to petitioners and Maglio Christopher & Toale in the amount of $20,924.10.

Additionally, the court awards $5,381.12 to petitioners, representing reimbursement for their litigation costs. The award shall be in the form of one check made solely payable to petitioners in the amount of $5,381.12.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
