Attorneys' fees and costs decision based on stipulation of fact

Petitioners submitted their request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items in petitioners' application. Based on these objections, petitioners amend their application for attorneys' fees and costs to $13,555.21. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $13,555.21, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioners and Farrish Johnson Law Office in the amount of $13,555.21.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>2</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.
