On June 1, 2011, the parties filed the attached stipulation, in which they agreed to settle the attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirements, petitioner states she incurred no costs to pursue her petition.

The court hereby adopts the parties' stipulation and awards compensation in the amount set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards $26,000.00, representing reimbursement for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The award shall be in the form of one check made jointly payable to petitioner and Douglas & London, P.C. in the amount of $26,000.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
