DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On September 26, 2011, the parties filed a stipulation, in which they agreed to settle the attorneys' fees and costs in this case. Petitioners request $40,259.71 for attorneys' fees and costs, which includes $33,053.50 in fees and $7,206.21 in costs.

Pursuant to General Order #9, petitioners state that they did not incur any costs to pursue this petition.

The court finds the amounts to be reasonable and hereby adopts the parties' stipulation and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards a total of $40,259.71, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of one check made jointly payable to petitioners and Rawls, McNelis & Mitchell in the amount of $40,259.71.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
