DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On November 6, 2013, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner asserts that she advanced no costs in pursuit of her petition.

Petitioner submitted her draft application for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised certain objections to petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends her application for attorneys' fees and costs to $28,500.00. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $28,500.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Thomas P. Gallagher, Esquire, LLC in the amount of $28,500.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
