No. 08-640V
Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: January 9, 2012

Attorneys' fees and costs; award in the amount to which respondent does not object.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

David L. Terzian, Rawls, McNelis and Mitchell, P.C., Richmond, VA, for Petitioner;
Ryan D. Pyles, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

Petitioner Robert Bruce filed his application for attorneys' fees and costs on January 5, 2012. The Court awards the amount to which respondent does not object

Mr. Bruce claimed that the trivalent influenza vaccine caused an adverse reaction and received compensation based upon the parties' stipulation. Decision, filed Oct. 19, 2011. Because Mr. Bruce received compensation, he is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

All decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, the person submitting the information has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document's disclosure. If the special master agrees that the identified material fits within the categories listed above, the special master shall redact such material from public access. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B); Vaccine Rule 18(b).

Mr. Bruce seeks $53,095.57 in attorneys' fees and costs for petitioner's counsel. Additionally, Mr. Bruce filed a statement of costs in compliance with General Order No. 9, stating that he incurred $6,540.00 while pursuing this claim. Respondent stated that she had no objection to this application for attorneys' fees and costs.

After reviewing the request, the court awards the following:

1. A lump sum payment of $53,095.57 in the form of a check payable to petitioner's attorney, David L. Terzian, of the law firm Rawls, McNelis and Mitchell, P.C., and petitioner, Robert Bruce, for attorney's fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).
2. A lump sum payment of $6,540.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Robert Bruce.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter.

The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
