ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS DECISION*

Petitioner, Tracy Cook, seeks reimbursement for her attorneys' fees and costs. Ms. Cook is awarded the amount to which respondent has not objected.

On August 31, 2009, petitioner filed her original application seeking reimbursement for her attorneys' fees and costs, along with a statement containing the amount of attorneys' fees and costs to which respondent does not object.

After reviewing the request and supporting documentation, the court awards $17,033.50 in attorneys' fees and $12,127.46 in costs to the law firm of Hostetter Knapp, LLP.

* Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the special master's action in this case, the special master intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims's website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002).

All decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, a party has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document's disclosure. If the special master, upon review, agrees that the identified material fits within the banned categories listed above, the special master shall delete such material from public access. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4); Vaccine Rule 18(b).

The judgment shall be payable as an award of $29,160.96 made payable to petitioner and Hostetter Knapp, LLP.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Christian J. Moran
Special Master

¹ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
