<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I intend to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, § 205, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (codified as amended at 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2006)). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), a party has 14 days to identify and move to delete medical or other information, that satisfies the criteria in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B). Further, consistent with the rule requirement, a motion for redaction must include a proposed redacted decision. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within the requirements of that provision, I will delete such material from public access.

<sup>2</sup> Petitioners originally filed an opposed motion for attorneys' fees and costs on March 5, 2012. Respondent's counsel had opposed the motion on the grounds that he believed the case to be untimely filed. Respondent's counsel later communicated to petitioners' counsel that he no longer opposed the motion. On March 8, 2012, petitioners' counsel filed a motion to strike the earlier opposed motion and attached an unopposed motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

reviewed the motion and does not object. Petitioners seek attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $2,652.00. In lieu of filing a Vaccine General Order #9 statement, petitioners' counsel represents that he will reimburse petitioners any costs that petitioners personally incurred that are compensable under § 15 (e)(1).

The request for attorneys' fees and costs is granted. Petitioners are awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to §§ 15(b) and (e)(1), as I find that the petition was brought in good faith and upon a reasonable basis, and the amounts requested are reasonable and appropriate.

Pursuant to §15(e), I award a lump sum of $2,652.00 to be paid in the form of a check payable jointly to the petitioners and petitioners' counsel, David P. Matthews.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.<sup>3</sup>
