Attorney Fees and Costs

DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Vowell, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision on May 27, 2011, denying compensation and dismissing this case. On June 23, 2011, petitioner filed a petition for attorney fees and costs requesting reimbursement of $68,000.00, jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's attorney, Curtis R. Webb, for all attorney fees and costs. This petition represented petitioner incurred no costs. Counsel for respondent has informed counsel for petitioner that respondent does not oppose petitioner's total request of $68,000.00 for attorney fees and costs.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and 15(e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $68,000.00³ as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner, Melissa D. Parsley, and petitioner's attorney, Curtis R. Webb. Petitioner's attorney shall be reimbursed from this award.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir. 1991).

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
