DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Vowell, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision on July 3, 2013, that awarded compensation pursuant to the parties' joint stipulation. On August 20, 2013, the parties filed a stipulation for attorney fees and costs. The stipulation indicates that respondent does not object to the amount petitioner is requesting. Additionally, pursuant to General Order #9, the stipulation notes that petitioner incurred $396.60 in personal litigation costs.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $26,865.78³ as follows:

- A. A lump sum payment of $26,469.18 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner’s counsel of record, Thomas P. Gallagher, for petitioner’s attorney fees and costs; and
- B. A lump sum payment of $396.60 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Margaret Rouse, for her personal litigation costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party’s filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
