personal litigation costs. In accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e), the undersigned awards the amount to which Respondent does not object.

Petitioner, Matthew Daniel, alleged that he suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) as a consequence of his receipt of the Tetanus-diphtheria (“Td”) vaccine, which is a vaccine contained in the Vaccine Injury Table, 42 C.F.R § 100.3(a), and which he received on or about March 9, 2009. Petitioner also alleged residual effects of this injury for more than six months and that he has not otherwise received compensation for such injuries. A decision awarding compensation based upon the parties’ stipulation was entered on July 18, 2013, 2013.

Although Respondent did not concede the claim, the parties, nonetheless, settled the matter, and an award of compensation was made. Because Petitioner has been awarded compensation, Petitioner is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). The special master also finds that the stipulated amount of $32,361.21, in attorneys’ fees and costs, is reasonable based on the stage at which this matter was settled. Based on the request’s reasonableness and pursuant to Vaccine Rule 13, the undersigned GRANTS the parties’ request as outlined in the Stipulation. The judgment shall reflect that Petitioner is awarded attorneys’ fees and costs as follows:

in a check made payable jointly to Petitioner (Matthew Daniel) and Petitioner’s counsel (Mark T. Sadaka, Esq., Mark T. Sadaka MSPH, Esq., the amount of $32,361.21, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.<sup>2</sup>
