

United States Court of Federal Claims Vacancy Announcement

Position: Term Law Clerk to Judge

Opening Date: August 1, 2019

Closing Date: January 11, 2020

Salary: Job Grade JSP 11/1 – 14/1
Salary Minimum: $69,581
Salary Maximum: $117,191

The United States Court of Federal Claims is seeking to fill a law clerk position in the chambers of Judge Lydia Kay Griggsby. Expected clerkship tenure is from late August or early September 2020 through late August or early September 2022.

Position Overview:

The judicial law clerk researches issues of law, drafts bench memoranda and opinions, attends trials and other Court proceedings, and acts as advisor, making recommendations based upon the law. Position includes responsibility for routine administrative tasks as well. The caseload in the jurisdiction is heavy, and the types of cases presented are varied, often involving novel and complex issues of fact and law. While the nature of the matters presented is serious, the office environment is personable. There is daily interaction with the Judge and other law clerks concerning legal and court-related issues.

Qualifications

To qualify for this position, one must be a law school graduate at the time of appointment with excellent academic standing and possess excellent research, writing, and communication skills. The applicant must exhibit good character and maturity. Law review, moot court or legal clinic experience is preferred. One year of prior legal experience involving government contracts, employment, or intellectual property law is also preferred.

The applicant's years of legal work experience will determine the appointment to the applicable Judiciary Salary Plan (JSP) grade level. Please note that appointment to JSP-12 or above requires that the applicant be a member of a bar of a state, territory, or federal court of general jurisdiction.

Information for Applicants

The best qualified applicants will be invited for in-person interviews in Washington, DC. Due to the large number of applications anticipated, only those applicants invited for interviews will be contacted by the Court.

Applications must be submitted electronically. The application shall consist of:

- Cover letter addressed to the Hon. Lydia Kay Griggsby, Judge, United States Court of Federal Claims
- Resume (with rank and honors)
- Writing Sample(s) (not to exceed 5 pages)
- Transcripts – undergraduate and graduate degrees
- Three references (name, affiliation, and contact information) from persons who are familiar with your work

Email complete application in one submission (attachments in PDF only) to: griggsby_chambers@cfc.uscourts.gov. Please enter the vacancy announcement “Law Clerk” in the subject line.

Incomplete or late application packages will not be considered.

No phone calls please.

The United States Court of Federal Claims reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, to withdraw the job announcement, to commence interviews immediately, or to fill the position sooner than the closing date, any of which actions may occur without prior written or other notice.

The United States Court of Federal Claims is an equal opportunity employer.

All applicants must be a U.S. citizen or be eligible to work in the United States.

All appointments subject to FBI fingerprint background check; with periodic reinvestigation, if applicable.

Retention depends upon a favorable suitability determination.

All appointments also subject to mandatory electronic funds transfer.