After discussion at the Autism status conference held on August 11, 2005, and approval of these procedures by Mr. Powers and Ms. Anis on behalf of the Petitioners' Steering Committee, I hereby adjust the procedures for service of documents in the Omnibus Autism Proceeding as follows.

Effective immediately, the respondent will once again be required to serve a copy of documents filed into the Autism Master File upon "Liaison Counsel" Ghada Anis. Service on her shall be via telephonic facsimile, as discussed at the status conference.

Also, the Clerk of this court is hereby instructed that the Clerk's office shall once again send copies of my own Autism Master File filings to Ms. Anis, as well as Mr. Williams, for petitioners. Copies shall be sent to Ms. Anis at the following address:

Respondent shall continue to serve one copy of discovery documents upon the attorney of record for petitioners in Taylor v. HHS, 02-699V. There is no need to serve a second copy on Ms. Anis. (Respondent, however, shall supply Ms. Anis with copies of the "notices of filing" of such documents via e-mail or fax.)
