DECISION<sup>1</sup>

LORD, Special Master.

Petitioner in the above-captioned case filed a stipulation regarding attorneys' fees and costs (the "Stipulation") on March 3, 2011. After informal discussions with Respondent, Petitioner requests a total award of $18,288.50 in attorneys' fees and $2,484.46 in costs, for a total of $20,772.96. In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner represents that he incurred no personal litigation costs. Respondent does not object to this request. Id.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). After reviewing the request, the court finds the stipulated amount of $20,772.96 in attorneys' fees and costs to be reasonable. Based on the request's reasonableness, the undersigned GRANTS the parties' request as outlined in the Stipulation.

<sup>1</sup>As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request the redaction "of any information furnished by that party (1) that is trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical files or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims (RCFC), Appendix B, Vaccine Rule 18(b). In the absence of a timely objection, the entire document will be made publicly available.

Accordingly, pursuant to Vaccine Rule 13, Petitioner is awarded a total of $20,772.96 in attorneys' fees and costs. The judgment shall reflect that Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs as follows:

in a check made payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, David C. Richards, of Christiansen & Jensen, P.C., in the amount of $20,772.96.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.<sup>2</sup>
