DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On July 22, 2010, the parties filed the attached stipulation, in which they agreed to settle this case and described the settlement terms. Petitioner alleged that he suffered injury from pulmonary emboli following a tetanus toxoid-diphtheria (“Td”) vaccination. Respondent denies that petitioner’s pulmonary emboli were caused in fact by his Td vaccination. Nonetheless, the parties agreed to resolve this matter informally.

The court hereby adopts the parties' said stipulation, attached hereto, and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards:

- a. a lump sum of $15,000.00 in the form of a check made payable to petitioner.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²
