Attorney Fees and Costs

DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Vowell, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision on April 25, 2011, denying compensation and dismissing this case. On or about June 6, 2011, petitioners submitted a draft application for attorney fees and costs to respondent. Petitioners requested a reimbursement of $4,184.68, jointly payable to petitioners and petitioners' attorney, David L. Terzian, for all attorney fees and costs. Petitioners understand that the payment totaling $4,184.68 represents all attorney fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). Counsel for respondent has informed counsel for petitioners that she does not oppose petitioners' total request for

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

$4,184.68 for attorney fees and costs. On June 8, 2011, petitioners filed stipulation of facts concerning attorney fees and costs in this matter.³

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and 15(e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $4,184.68⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioners, Michael Robinson and Melissa Robinson, and petitioners' attorney, David L. Terzian. Petitioners' attorney shall be reimbursed from this award.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ This motion included a statement in accordance with General Order 9 reporting that petitioners incurred no personal litigation costs.

⁴ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir. 1991).

⁵ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
